

Bill “Billionaire” Gilbert

After six years of hitting various stages, Billy “The Billionaire” Gilbert has left a permanent imprint in comedy. Bringing a refreshing no-holds bared, un-apologetic, extremely explosive energy to the stage.

Sharing his, at one time painful stories and turning them into comedy has made him so relatable. From growing up attending special education classes, having a strict mother constantly pushing him in school, to learning how to become a great husband and soon to be father of twins. (May,2017)

2016 Billionaire took a leap of faith and competed in the McDonalds Gospel Fest Competition. He was name the 2016 McDonalds Gospel Fest Comedy Competition winner, by breaking down the church ushers secret hand signals.

Standing out with the Clean punch lines, the Billionaire has already shared the stage with Comedian Capone, (Showtime at the Apollo Amateur Night, N.Y. Kings of Comedy Tour) Sarah Contreras (Latin Queen of Comedy). He has been featured on several nationally syndicated radio shows from NY to Atlanta, shined on comedy club stages across the country including Caroline’s Comedy Club, Gotham Comedy Club (both in NYC), Atlanta Comedy Theater, and a requested talent at churches.

Coming the summer of 2017 on the Hall Mills Network, the Billionaire will be featured on his own sketch stand-up comedy TV show called "Billionaire N Friends".

Billy "The Billionaire" Gilbert is unstoppable.
